

Direct Access

Direct Access is the removal of the physician referral mandated by state law to access physical therapists' services for evaluation and treatment. In the state of Georgia, physical therapists can treat a patient for 8 visits or 21 days before a prescription from a physician is needed (HB-505).